Vinegar Food Restaurant was originally a bar in a southern province of Italy which was established in 1985. It was co-founded by Mr. Alessandro and Giovanni who had been working as chefs for more than 20 years. Besides alcohol, the bar was also serving a wide range of Italian and French dishes.

The bar was using fresh ingredients from local farms and with the talent of the two chefs, in a few months the bar became a favourite among the locals. It had also become a famous place for tourists from neighbouring provinces. With the unexpected success of the dishes, in 1986 the owners decided to focus on serving food, and changed the name to Vinegar Food Restaurant. In 1987 the 2nd branch was opened in Rome, and at the end of 1989, more than 30 restaurants were established across Europe.

Showing simple but delicious recipes of the restaurant that the customers could try at home.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title "Beverage" and the URL "127.0.0.1:5500/Vinegar_recipe.html". The page has a header with links for HOME, ABOUT US, MEALS, GALLERY, AWARDS, CATERING, RECIPE OF THE MONTH, CONTACT US, and FEEDBACK. Below the header is a section titled "- RECIPE OF THE MONTH -". A text block says: "For those who do not have time for going out to eat, in order for you to enjoy the taste of Vinegar Food Restaurantat home, we would like to introduce some easy-to-made but delicious recipes created by our talented chef." To the left is a photograph of several Cheddar Dill Puffs on a white plate. To the right is the recipe details.

Cheddar Dill Puffs

Ingredients:

1. 1 cup water
2. 1/2 cup (1 stick) unsalted butter
3. 1 cup all-purpose flour
4. 4 to 5 large eggs
5. 1 1/2 cups finely grated yellow Cheddar
6. 2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh dill

How to make:

First, the dough is cooked on the stovetop, removed from the heat, and then cooled slightly. It's important to cool the dough a little bit so that the eggs will incorporate smoothly into the dough and not become scrambled eggs. At this point, the dough will look like a big lump of dry clay. That's OK.

Then the eggs get beaten in one at a time. When you first add in each egg, the dough will separate and look completely messed up like what you see in the top right photo above. Don't worry – just keep stirring. As the egg gets incorporated, the dough will get smoother and will magically become more cohesive.
